

EAGLE FIELD

The Eagle soccer facilities include a state of the art soccer complex with seating for 1,000, a press box, scoreboard and Bermuda turf playing surface.

Taking in a soccer game is one of the regular activities for students and the public. The largest crowd to ever witness a soccer game came in 2002 at the men's championship game of the Big South Conference Tournament (1,470).

